Sir

I have the honor to state that report has been received from the Amildar of Krishnarajapet Taluk recommending the grant of a special allowance of one seer of rice and 2 annas a day to each superior servant and one seer of rice and 6 pias a day to each inferior servant deputed for duty during the Hemagiri Jatra, as granted to those deputed for special duty during the Chunchanakatte Jatra (Vide G.O. No. 3284-86/Muz. 506-18-2 dated the 16th April 1920¹⁹).

The Sub Division Officer supports the Amildar's recommendation.

I think, in view of the hard times, the concessions asked for, on behalf of the poor taluk officials, may be granted and I therefore request that you will be so good as to obtain sanction of Government to an annual allotment of Rs. 100/- for the above purpose.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

With reference to your letter No. 3141 Huz. 405-20-2 dated 8th March 1921, ~~calling for further information~~ re the grant of special allowance to the Taluk Officials deputed for duty during Hemagiri Jatra, I have the honor to state that the Amildar of Krishnarajpet Taluk reports that the undermentioned staff are generally deputed for duty at Hemagiri during the Jatra every year.-

One Police Inspector
One " Sub, Inspector
Three Police Daffedars
Thirty Police constables.
One Muzrai Gannasta
Five other ~~taluk~~ officials and
Peons on duty with the Amildar.

2. As these officials are said to undergoing great hard ship during the time of special duty at the temple situated amidst jungle and far away from any villages and in view of the fact that the officials are worked overtime it is recommended the special allowance proposed in my letter No. C. 354-20-21 dated 7th February 21, be paid to them in addition to the Travelling allowance and daily batta that they get which is after all very little

3. An annual allotment of Rs. 100/- is reported to be quite sufficient for the purpose.

4. The connected file of vernacular papers ending with Krishna rajpet taluk Amildar's report No. 112 dated 28th November 21 is forwarded herewith for reference.
